He had been ill seven months. The funeral was held at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at St. Mark's, Rev. F. Meusch officiating, with burial in Fairview cemetery. A native of Hermsdoren, Bohemia, Mr. Kahler came to America in 1881, settling at Reading, Penn. In 1884 he went to Louisville and a short time later moved to this city. He established in 1907 the plant of the company, which had grown into an extensive industry when it was destroyed by the tornado of March 23, 1917. It was the first plant in the city to be rebuilt and placed in operation after the disaster. Mr. Kahler was a member of the St. Mark's Evangelical Church and active in its affairs. He was prominent in Masonry and a member of Pythagoras Masonic Lodge, New Albany Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, New Albany Commandery, Knights Templar; Indiana Consistory, Scottish Rite Masons, and Murat Temple of the Shrine. Besides his wife, Mrs. Mary Kahler, he is survived by a son, Ferdinand Kahler, Jr., a granddaughter, two brothers, Joseph Kahler, of New Albany and August Kahler, of Little Rock, and a sister, Miss Theresa Kahler, of New Albany.
